ACTIVE IN PHILANTHROPY.

Mrs. Augusta Wells, Brattleboro, One of Town's Best Known Women.

Brattleboro, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Augusta E. Wells, aged 80 years, one of Brattleboro's best known women, died on Monday night as a result of shock. She was connected with various religious and philanthropic organizations and her largest public service was as agent of the trustees of the Thomas Thompson Trust of Boston. About $150,000 of the income of the trust has passed through her hands in the past 20 years, largely for the purpose of alleviating distress.

She was a native of Guilford. Her husband, who died five years ago, was a California gold hunter in the early '50s. She leaves an adopted daughter, Miss Florence Hemenway Wells, of Brattleboro.

ENGEL RESIGNS.

University of Vermont Baseball Coach to Leave Dec. 23.

A Clyde Engel, ex-Red Sox player, has sent in his resignation as baseball coach of the University of Vermont, to take effect Dec. 23. It is conditioned upon action of the president and college authorities.

Engel has been coach for two years and has won an enviable reputation. No reasons for the resignation are given out, but it has been talked among the undergraduates and alumni that Engel had not been allowed the authority he desired in handling the baseball team and, therefore, has been in conflict with the athletic council of the university.

SUSPECTS WERE SOON RELEASED

Were Thought to Be Agents of the Sinn Fein Movement

WENT TO ENGLAND FROM NEW YORK

Men Were Disarmed and Allowed to Proceed to London

London, Dec. 1.—Six men arrested at Southampton yesterday upon the arrival of the liner Aquitania from New York were released here to-day by police officials. When they were arrested it was announced they were suspected of being agents of the Sinn Fein.

Revolvers were found on the six men, but they asserted they were ignorant of the recently enacted firearms act, which forbids the importation of those weapons. They were closely questioned and their weapons were confiscated before they were placed on a train coming to this city. When they reached here they were asked to go to Scotland Yard. They refused to talk to reporters and their identities were not disclosed.

The bodies of the 15 auxiliary police recruits who were killed near Kilmichael, county Cork, Ireland, on Sunday evening, will be brought to England from Cork probably late this week. One recruit in the party has been missing since the fight and has not as yet been found.

Buildings housing Sinn Fein organizations in this city and its suburbs were raided by Scotland Yard detectives yesterday and it is declared a large quantity of documents were seized. No arrests, so far as known, were made.

Yesterday morning two men, suspected of being Sinn Feiners, were called from their beds and shot to death. The tragedies occurred in the county Louth and a military court of inquiry has begun an investigation.

Details of Tragic Massacre Lacking.

Cork, Nov. 30 (By the Associated Press).—Details of the tragic story of Sunday evening's massacre near Kilmichael, in which 15 auxiliary police recruits were shot to death, may never come to light. The only available source of information is the sole surviving member of the party who was severely wounded and is believed to be dying in the military hospital here.

A meagre story of the event, gasped out by the wounded man, has been told officials sitting by his bedside. He has declared that the party of recruits met an armed band in marching in the road, the men wearing khaki suits and "tin hats." The recruits mistook them in the fading light for soldiers, and thus fell into an ambush.

Statements from other quarters indicate that the annihilation of the party of recruits can be accounted for only on the theory that the road was mined or a trench had been dug across it. So far as is known there were no casualties on the side of the assailants.

The recruits left the village of Macroom early on Sunday to conduct raids and searches in the country side stretching toward Dunman. The entire day was occupied with this work and it was late in the evening when the party started on its return journey. One account of the incident states that at a secluded spot a trench was dug across the road and into it the leading lorry plunged. The second lorry, which was traveling fast, ran into the wrecked car, it is said, and the occupants of both became easy victims of the men who planned the attack. Police officials at Macroom were ignorant of the tragedy until Monday, when a party was sent to scour the country for the missing men.

Police authorities here still claim to be gaining the upper hand in the fight against extremists. They assert the men responsible for ambushes and assassinations are being driven to a corner. They are receiving no protection from the people and move about the country-side in small bands, forcing farmers, it is declared, to provide them with food. "Every man of them is known to us," said an official today, "so they do not dare to scatter and return to their homes because they know they would be arrested immediately. It is only a question of rounding them up which may take considerable time, especially in mountainous country like that surrounding the scene of Sunday night's ambush."

WATERBURY

There were 76 present at the morning service last Sunday and in the evening the attendance was 23. The Sunday school had the largest attendance recorded for about a year, there being 58 present in classes, as follows: Men, 12, women 13, Miss Norcross's class 4, Mrs. Towne's 11, Mrs. Norcross's 7, Miss Dibble's 7, Miss Lyon's 4, 7 workers conference and prayer meeting will be held in the north church this week Thursday at 7:30. All interested in the welfare of the church and Sunday school are invited. A special meeting of the Brotherhood is called for Monday evening next in the north church vestry at 8 o'clock.

The Advent season, Nov. 30 to Dec. 4, has for many centuries been observed by the Christian church as a period of spiritual preparation for Christmas. Accordingly, the pastor, Rev. J. G. Sallis, invites all his parishioners to these weeks a time for earnest prayer. Those who have not yet joined the church are urged to give this matter serious consideration with a view to being admitted to membership at the special service on Christmas Sunday. And those who are already members are requested to earnestly renew their consecration to God and the church during this season. All the services from now to Christmas will be of a special character. Next Sunday morning the pastor will preach on "The Tragedy of Christmas." In the evening, the prayer sermon to young people will be on "Home Making for the Master." Geraldine Lyon, Ruth Norcross and Mrs. H. H. Freeman are the committee elected by the Sunday school to prepare for the Christmas tree entertainment.

Mrs. Freeman was unable to take her place at the organ last Sunday, owing to illness, and was greatly missed. Miss Lyon in the morning and Mrs. F. L. Graves in the evening supplied very readily and very acceptably.

The pastor expects to be in Montpelier Friday this week to attend ministerial retreat, at which he is to speak on "Men's Classes in Rural Churches."

MIDDLESEX

A congregation of about forty attended service at the M. E. church last Sunday. Many remained for Sunday school and there were thirteen in the newly organized men's club.

50 HENS LAID 3 EGGS A DAY, NOW LAY 36

Tells How to Make Idle Hens Produce Money in Winter.

"When I began using Don Sung in December, I was getting only 2 or 3 eggs a day from 50 hens. Within three weeks I was getting from 3 to 4 dozen a day. I shall never be without Don Sung. —Jermaine Hedges, R. F. D. 2, Shrewsbury, Ill.

This 3 or 4 dozen eggs a day, at winter prices, is a scientific fact and a real money maker. Your hens should do as well. It's no trouble to use Don Sung and you risk nothing by trying it under this offer.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply let me and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific food and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.04 (includes way paid for a package) by mail, Burdell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

"HIM"

This advertisement is especially prepared for the ladies
